TEFAF ANNOUNCES INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITOR LINE-UP FOR TEFAF NEW YORK 2024, MAY 10-14, 2024

The fair brings together 89 world-leading art dealers showcasing modern and contemporary art, jewelry, antiques, and design

(New York) February 1, 2024 – Returning to the iconic Park Avenue Armory, TEFAF New York's full exhibitor list was announced today, featuring nearly 90 leading international galleries from 15 countries and four continents. The most captivating objects of modern and contemporary art, jewelry, antiques, and design will be on view from May 10-14, 2024, with an invitation-only Collectors Preview on May 9, 2024.

TEFAF New York will showcase exceptional art, design, jewelry, and antiquities from the 20th and 21st centuries at the Park Avenue Armory's expansive 55,000-square-foot Wade Thompson Drill Hall. Along with exhibitor stands in the grand drill hall, TEFAF New York also offers stunning curated spaces in the Armory's period rooms.

Hidde van Seggelen, President of the TEFAF Executive Committee, says, "We are thrilled to return to New York, the center of gravity for the art world, to present TEFAF New York every May. With the convergence of the international art community, the city's vibrant energy is palpable and still unmatched by any other place in the world. Returning to the Park Avenue Armory and being part of New York's art scene is a true privilege. Working alongside such esteemed exhibitors to present museum-quality pieces is a thrilling experience. Our mission is to continue the legacy of TEFAF by sharing inspiring objects with art lovers from around the globe."

"We are pleased to continue our long-term partnership with TEFAF as the lead partner for TEFAF New York 2024. We understand the importance of art as an economic driver, cultural exchange, and intellectual discovery, and we share TEFAF's passion for preserving and promoting it," comments Drew Watson, head of Art Services at Bank of America. "Through a suite of art services including art lending, planning, and consignment, we work with both private individuals and nonprofit institutions to grow, transition, and preserve art for generations to come."
