

AN INCIDENT AT TEFAF MAASTRICHT JUNE 28

At approximately 1130am, TEFAF Maastricht was temporarily evacuated due to an incident within the fair.

The TEFAF security procedures were activated immediately, and Dutch police were on site within minutes. Nobody was injured during the incident.

The fair's stringent safety procedures were followed, and all visitors were successfully evacuated expeditiously.

A spokesperson for TEFAF said, "TEFAF has robust procedures in the event of a security breach. These were precisely followed, and all visitors, exhibitors and staff were safely evacuated. The fair has now reopened, and exhibitors, participants and existing visitors are able to return to the fair. TEFAF and the MECC are now working with the authorities– no further statement will be made."

ENDS
